Let's travel around the world

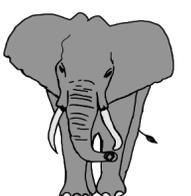

In February I was in Africa. This country was exciting. The whole continent is very hot during the year. I met a boy who was younger than me. He was 12 years old but he was thinner and faster than me.

In Africa, I travelled on camel's back and slept on desert. I visited Safary. I also saw giraffes. It is very tall animal, taller than me. Africans are very friendly and happy people but poor. They don't have Euros.

Questions

- 1.What's the weather like in Africa?
- 2. Tell me something about the boy.
- 3. How did she travel in Africa?
- 4. What animals did she see?
- 5.What money do they use in Africa?

Next month, I travelled to South America. This continent was very different. The weather was hot, cold and it was raining and also it was very windy most of the days.

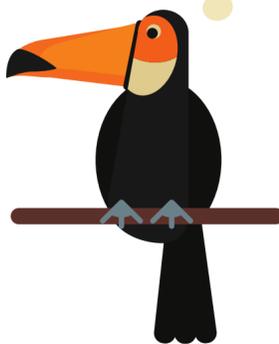

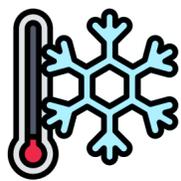

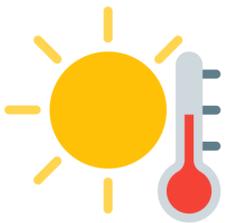

I visited Brazil, Chile, Peru and Argentina. I danced with people on the streets and listened to their music. I liked this trip because it was full of good people, food and music. I climbed Machu Picchu first week. When I came to Brazil it was 3 o'clock in the afternoon. What was the time in Slovakia?

Questions

1. Which cities did she visit?
2. Where did she climb?
3. When did she arrive to Brazil?
4. What did she like about South America?

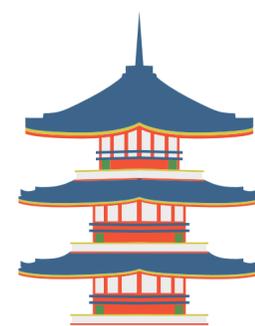

Write words under the pictures.

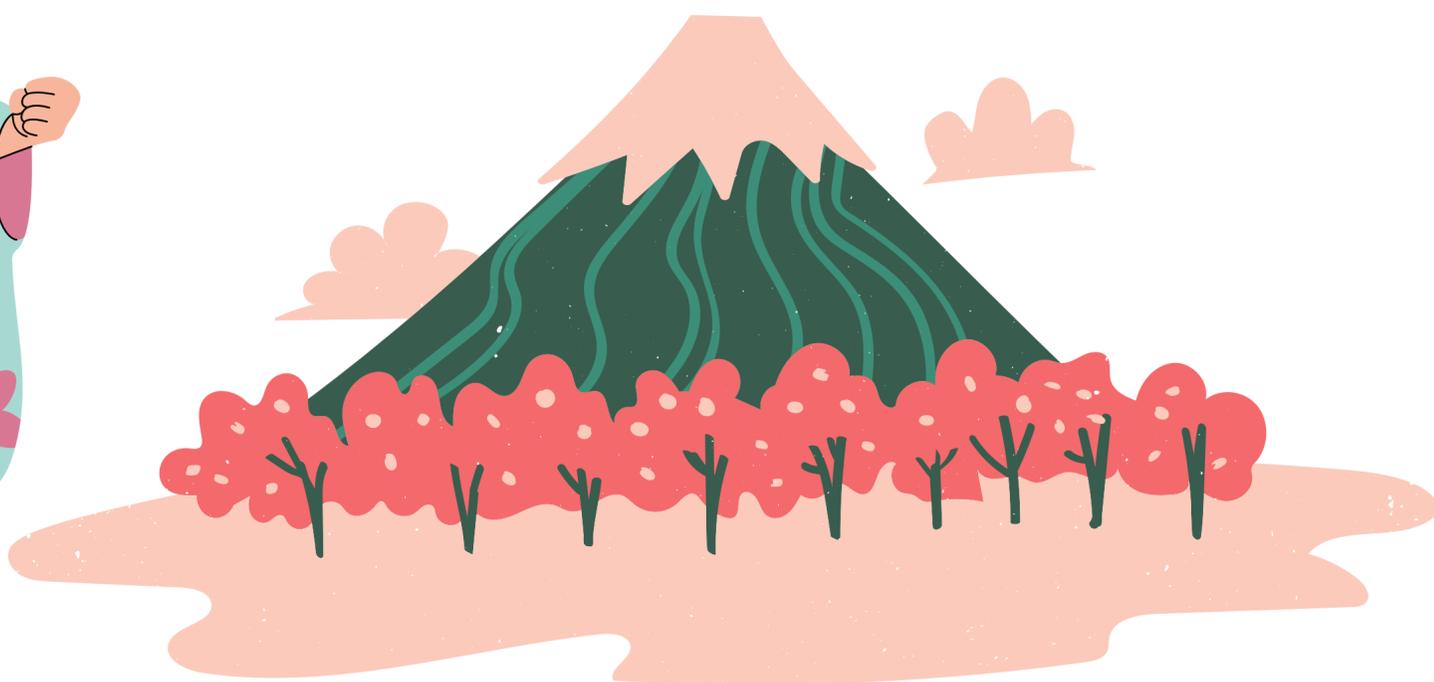

In April, I visited Japan. I talked to Japanese people and learned some words. In Japan there are special houses and buildings.

The weather was good not very hot, not very cold. Because of the mountains there was cooler than in Africa. At the end of April, Sakura trees started to bloom. It was very nice. The streets were full of pink trees. Japan is in Asia.

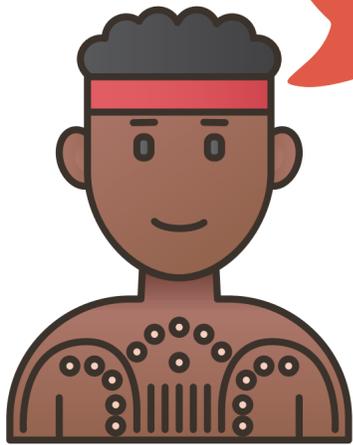

Questions

- 1. Why was cooler in Japan than in Africa?
- 2. What is the name of the typical pink tree?
- 3. What is the time in Japan, now?
- 4. When did the Sakura tree bloom?

At the beginning of June, I travelled to Australia. I travelled by plane. It was a very very long flight. The pilot told us through microphone that we flew through the storm. I was scared. After one day of travelling, I was finally in Australia. I met original people called Aborigines and learned about their culture.

I touched kangaroos, koalas and wombats. They are such cute animals.

Questions

- 1.What was the weather like during the flight?
- 2.How did she travel?
- 3.How did she feel?
- 4.Whom did she meet?
5. Which animals did she touch?
